

As a resident that spends alot of time in my vehicle, Airl radio station is a relief and is a station I depend on. If an LPFM broadcaster is allowed I fear that I would not be able to get Airl. It provides uplifting music and information to myself and my family. Many people in my community make mention of it's importance in their lives along with the younger generation. It is a nice alternative to music.